A STALE BLANDER REVIVED-DE ARERNETHY PRODUCKER THE CHARGE "AN ENGLAIPTER Lix."—Especial telegram to the Dispatch.]—Retherford College, N. C., October 16,—I notice a appendia from your faileten correspondent reviving a stale slander of Rutherford College concerning the sale of degrees. Of course it is an unqualined and infamous he, invented by a dirty little newspaper follow in both Carolina. [Stead] W. K. ARERKETEY.

To reply to the above in the briefest possible space, permit me to say that, among the overwhelming proofs in my possession of the unworthness of this intelled "dispenser of degrees." of which W. R. Abernathy is a so-called professor, which proofs for the most part have been published in the Southern Christian Advocate during the past three months, and which remain unchallenged to this hour. I have in my possession the following extract from a catching letter, applying for the degree of Master of Arts, and written by a worthy Methodist minister, of Canada, the Roy. W. F. Campbell, of Blyth, Ontario. The Rev. Mr. Campbell, wishing to prove that it was the money and not scholastic attainments that secured these "favors" from Katherford College, wrote a letter "giving," as he says, "as low a standing as I thought I dare not to arouse suspicion, " beging the faculty to do the best they could for me." The following is a cerbation copy of that part of his letter furnished me by the Rev. Mr. Campbell himselt:

Application.

"I have read a little Latin cosar and the greek grammar also the following in English part of shakespeare and a manual of Eng. Literature History of Rome and greece and united slates and canada. I can do anything in arithmetic up to compound Interest and have studied a little in Geometry and algebra also in astronomy and Physics and zoology and Philosophy. Indeed I have read a good deal in Philosophy. Besides this I have read a good deal in Philosophy. Besides this I have read some in Theology of course. I have also done considerable promiscuous reading lately." APPLICATION.

To this rare application for the high and honorable degree of Alaster of Arts—rare in its use of capital letters and punctuation points as well as in the amount of culture it revealed—Mr. Campbell promptly received the following reply, the original of which is in my possession and from which I copy verbalim:

Washington, D. C., October 22.—The Re-publicans, have denied so many charges made against them in the line-of their radical policy towards the South that it has been determined to give them a lesson in the most important chapter of that vol-ume of the party history that relates to restoring the rule of rum in the southern States after it was found that the carpet-States after it was found that the carpet-bag regime failed to secure all the south-ern representatives in the Republican party. They have denied the authenticity of the article credited to the National Re-publican of July 3, 1890, in which that mighty organ of the Grand Old Party heralded the purpose of the party to pass the force bill and inaugurate a system of Federal control of elections, with mixed schools, social equality, miscegenation, and practical confiscation.

With their accustomed enterprise in pre-varicatorial politics, the Republicans de-nied the allegation and impugned the alle-gators.

President Harrison had whitewashed the force-bill paragraph of the Minneapolis platform by proposing to substitute a "non-pariisan elections commission," and unon that issue the Republican party was to maintain itself like the Quaker who said it was argainst his religion to strike an to maintain itself like the Quaker who said it was against his religion to strike an enemy, but he would hold him so uneasy that he couldn't possibly live, and nobody could accuse him of violence or murder.

The copy of the National R-publican containing the virulent article against the South had mysteriously disappeared when the Republicans called for the proofs. Weeks passed and it was not found, and the G. O. P. organs fairly howled. They are howing now about the "infamous forgery," &c.

THE AUTHORITY. But just in the nick of time a good fairy in the shape of an unkempt junk-dealer suddenly appeared with a file of the resuddenly appeared with a file of the recently detunct Republican organ, once run by "Old Man Clapp," Government printer and perquisite broker in the halcyon days of Hayes. The paper was started under the administration of Lincoln, in 1860, and had been the official organ of the party ever since, so the hepublican patrioss cannot deny its authority. The date of July 3, 1890, shows the significant coincidence of the conception of a force bill.
We know that the Lodge bill was shrewdly concoted so as to hide the fell purpose and the deadly machinery in a labyrinth of complicated language. But the R-publican's remarks on it confess its avowed intention, and this is exactly what the Demotention, and this is exactly what the Demo-crats wanted to put before the people and what the Republicans wanted to hide.

But the good fairy of a junk-dealer came to the rescue, and to-morrow (Sunday) the National Democrat will produce the fac-simile of that issue with the affidavit certificate of twenty well-known citizens that it is genuine. It will be good Sunday reading for the Republicans, and the last positive denial they made will be a good postscript to that page of the pious Democratic Sunday paper, on whom the fairy junk-dealer lighted. To the Democratic eye this photolithographic picture in print is equal to a Remorant or Raphael masterpiece, for it shows all the doubting Democrats of the South that the Republican party was, and still is, in carnest, though it hides its purpose, to Africanize the South and control it with a patent ballot bayonet.
